	much more. For years our Adult Drug Court successfully used her nutritional approach -- along with acupuncture and mind/body techniques -- until the Great Recession ended all but yoga services there. Says former director Burke Adrian compiled (but did not analyze) comparative data. Proposed having an MSW or criminal justice graduate student do so. Ms. Blacksher thought some residential treatment providers could begin pilot program after their staff came on board with the nutritional approach, perhaps through earning professional development hours. Need comparative food costs, too. Formed small ad-hoc committee for further discussion...feedback on Sherri Heller's 2-7-17 BOS presentation on opioid and meth dependence...reason for County data vastly understating alcohol's effect on domestic violence; providers should meet with their Board Supervisor to relate anecdotal info. Next Treatment Committee will meet March 15, 1:30 p.m., CCAPP Prevention Committee (3rd Tuesday), February 21, 2017 1:30 p.m., CCAPP. Great attendance!
